
Winning Jack Welch

the personal journey of jack welch jack: straight from the gut - the vision thing jack welch's first time in front of wall street as ceo — a talk before financial community representatives in 1981 — was, by his own admission, a bomb. driver recruitment and retention: a winning combination - jack welch, ceo of general electric said; "business is like a sports team; to win, you have to field the best talent". some managers may be reading this and thinking, "heck, i'd settle for fielding a risk management in hr and assessment - ipac - alternatives for dealing with risk •tolerate - no steps to address the risk •eliminate it; the possible outcome is unacceptable •minimize the likelihood of an outcome occurring and/or its potential impact as far as possible •diversify the risk across a number of different areas •concentrate all risks into one area or theme •hedge - assume additional risks to be able to the 4-hour body - the blog of author tim ferriss - praise for the 4-hour workweek "this is a whole new ball game. highly recommended." —dr. stewart d. friedman, adviser to jack welch and former director of the work/life integration program at the wharton school, university of chapter 1: what is change management? what is ... - andrew n. - matter how good a leader we have, change is likely not to succeed without strong sponsorship and partnership. according to the report result from change-management , they suggested the war for talent - perform management & consulting - the war for talent tell me again: why would someone really good want to join your company? and how will you keep them for more than a few years? the 21 irrefutable laws of leadership - john maxwell team - law #2 -the law of influence the 21 irrefutable laws of leadership the true measure of leadership is influence -nothing more, nothing less the story: mother theresa, although a frail little woman, became world famous as a leader among leaders focused on the poor, diseased and youth.
